(b) FAPE for children beginning at age 3.

(1) Each State must ensure that—

(i) The obligation to make FAPE available to each eligible child residing in the State begins no later than the child's third birthday; and

(ii) An IEP or an IFSP is in effect for the child by that date, in accordance with §300.323(b).

(2) If a child's third birthday occurs during the summer, the child's IEP Team shall determine the date when services under the IEP or IFSP will begin.

(c) Children advancing from grade to grade.

(1) Each State must ensure that FAPE is available to any individual child with a disability who needs special education and related services, even though the child has not failed or been retained in a course or grade and is advancing from grade to grade.

(2) The determination that a child described in paragraph (a) of this section is eligible under this part, must be made on an individual basis by the group responsible within the child's LEA for making eligibility determinations.

Extended School Year (ESY) IDEA

ESY Services are provided to the child with a disability beyond the school year, in accordance with the IEP, and at no cost.

ESY services must be provided only if a child's IEP Team determines the services are necessary for the provision of FAPE to the child.

The public agency can not limit the ESY services to specific categories of disability or unilaterally limit the type, amount, or duration.

Extended School Year (ESY) Michigan

There must be at least one current IEP annual goal where significant concerns exist regarding skill maintenance during a break in services. A student may be determined to need ESY services due to:

- 1) A serious potential for regression of skills beyond a reasonable period of recoupment;
- 2) The nature or severity of the disability; or
- 3) Critical stages or areas of learning.

If there is no goal area of concern, ESY services are not needed for a FAPE.

FAPE

Sec. 300.106

Determination of the need for ESY services should be made on an individual basis, not a formula or policy

ESY Services can be provided in a variety of ways:

- Traditional classroom
- School-based programs that vary in length of schedule
- Daily instruction in specific goal areas
- Small group instruction
- One or more related services at a community recreation program
- Cooperative programs with other agencies
- Consultation with a job coach
- A week of intensive review just prior to the beginning of the school year
- Home-based programs that include parent training

Non-Academic Services

Each public agency must provide supplementary aids and services determined appropriate and necessary by the child's IEP Team, to provide nonacademic and extracurricular activities for the child with a disability to have equal participation in those services and activities.

Examples: Counseling, athletics, transportation, health, recreation activities, groups or clubs sponsored by the school, referrals to agencies that provide assistance, and employment of students

Program Options

The State must ensure that each public agency takes steps to ensure that its children with disabilities have available to them the variety of educational programs and services available to nondisabled children in the area served by the agency, including art, music, industrial arts, consumer and homemaking education, and vocational education.

LRE

WHAT IS REQUIRED?

Educate the child in the Least Restrictive
Environment (LRE)

Least Restrictive Environment

EDUCATION ACT

300.114 LRE requirements.

(a) General.

(1) Except as provided in §300.324(d)(2) (regarding children with disabilities in adult prisons), the State must have in effect policies and procedures to ensure that public agencies in the State meet the LRE requirements of this section and §§300.115 through 300.120.

(2) Each public agency must ensure that—

(i) To the maximum extent appropriate, children with disabilities, including children in public or private institutions or other care facilities, are educated with children who are nondisabled; and

(ii) Special classes, separate schooling, or other removal of children with disabilities from the regular educational environment occurs only if the nature or severity of the disability is such that education in regular classes with the use of supplementary aids and services cannot be achieved satisfactorily.

LRE

Least Restrictive Environment

Student must be placed in the regular educational environment to the maximum extent appropriate to receive supports and services as determined by the individualized education program team.

* Remember: Parents are members of the IEP Team.

Least Dangerous Assumption

“Even if we are wrong about presuming a student’s ability to learn and to communicate in ways that are on par with his classmates without disabilities, being wrong about that isn’t as dangerous as the alternative.”

- Jorgensen (2018)

Inclusive Classrooms

Students with significant cognitive disabilities who are educated in inclusive settings achieve greater success in the areas of:

- Academic outcomes (Bowman et al., 2020; Jimenez & Kamei, 2015; Hudson et al., 2013)
- Social skills (Asmus et al., 2017; Fisher & Meyer, 2002)
- Communication (Kleinert et al., 2019; Buckley et al., 2006)
- Peer engagement (Brock et al., 2017; Carter et al., 2016)
- Positive behavior (Loman et al., 2018)
- Post-secondary outcomes (Mazzotti et al., 2021; Test et al., 2009)

When students without disabilities are educated in inclusive classrooms, they develop skills like empathy and advocacy, and there is no negative effect on their academic performance (Carter et al., 2016).

Educational Placement

Students must be taught alongside their typically developing peers to the maximum extent appropriate

EDUCATION ACT

300.116 Placements.

In determining the educational placement of a child with a disability, including a preschool child with a disability, each public agency must ensure that—

(a) The placement decision—

(1) Is made by a group of persons, including the parents, and other persons knowledgeable about the child, the meaning of the evaluation data, and the placement options; and

(2) Is made in conformity with the LRE provisions of this subpart, including §§300.114 through 300.118;

(b) The child's placement—

(1) Is determined at least annually;

(2) Is based on the child's IEP; and

(3) Is as close as possible to the child's home;

(c) Unless the IEP of a child with a disability requires some other arrangement, the child is educated in the school that he or she would attend if nondisabled;

(d) In selecting the LRE, consideration is given to any potential harmful effect on the child or on the quality of services that he or she needs; and

(e) A child with a disability is not removed from education in age-appropriate regular classrooms solely because of needed modifications in the general education curriculum.

Findings

EDUCATION ACT

1400(c) (5)

- Almost 30 years of research and experience has demonstrated that the education of children with disabilities can be made more effective by—
 - (A) having high expectations for such children and ensuring their access to the general education curriculum in the regular classroom, to the maximum extent possible, in order to—
 - (i) meet developmental goals and, to the maximum extent possible, the challenging expectations that have been established for all children; and
 - (ii) be prepared to lead productive and independent adult lives, to the maximum extent possible;

300.115 Continuum of alternative placements.

- (a) Each public agency must ensure that a continuum of alternative placements is available to meet the needs of children with disabilities for special education and related services.
- (b) The continuum required in paragraph (a) of this section must—
- (1) Include the alternative placements listed in the definition of special education under §300.39 (instruction in regular classes, special classes, special schools, home instruction, and instruction in hospitals and institutions); and
 - (2) Make provision for supplementary services (such as resource room or itinerant instruction) to be provided in conjunction with regular class placement.

Who is on the IEP Team?

IEP decisions are not majority rule, the goal is consensus

- The IEP team should work towards a general agreement, but the public agency is ultimately responsible for ensuring the child receives FAPE
- It is not appropriate to make IEP decisions based on majority “vote”
- If agreement can not be reached then public agency makes the determination and provide the parents with Prior Written Notice (PWN)

Who makes IEP decisions?

The IEP Team
(which includes the parent)

<https://sites.ed.gov/idea/files/idea/policy/speced/guid/idea/letters/2010-1/richards010710iep1q2010.pdf>

Prior Written Notice must include these five requirements:

- A description of the action that the school district proposes or refuses to take;
- An explanation of why the school district is proposing or refusing to take that action;
- A description of each evaluation procedure, assessment, record, or report the school district used in deciding to propose or refuse the action;
- A description of any other choices that the Individualized Education Program (IEP) Team considered and the reasons why those choices were rejected;
- A description of other reasons why the school district proposed or refused the action

Prior Written Notice

Prior Written Notice (PWN) is required about placement before the IEP becomes effective.

Questions the IEP Team considers:

- What are the needs of the student?
- Why was the student placement selected? What options were considered?
- Was he previously making progress in the general education classroom?
- If not, were the supplementary aids and services provided to the student sufficient to support the student's unique needs and to provide the student access to special education?
- What skills are being developed to be successful in general education classroom?
- My child was included in the past and it didn't work. Why would we try again?
